

RECCE-VITE CITY 2014

Sunday 27 April

Reine square re-development is disappointing, it's now a Coles supermarket & arcade area. It used to be an open arcade with raised gardens & funky shops.

However, the Graffiti Art on the building walls encircling a car park opposite His Majesties car park was fab & funky.

The water fountain maze in Forrest Place, is amusing, good fun, great for tourists & all.

There are Markets in Murray Street mall, didn't look interesting.

We discovered Jamie Oliver's restaurant in William Street.

Greg bought a Modesty Blaze book for $5.

We had a mug of coffee flat white & a cappuccino at the cafe next to the bookshop. Both were not good the mugs were only slightly bigger than the cups but cost dollars more.
